Ebrahim Mashkoor: We Witnessed Death

http://bahrainalyoum.net/?p=26819

The family of detainee Ebrahim Mashkoor, son-in-law of Haq movement Secretary-General Hasan Mushaima, said that the situation is very bad in Jau prison.

The family said that they visited him on 22\textsuperscript{nd} April and he looked very different. He was thin, his skin was darker, and his hair was shaved which indicated that the condition inside the prison was not normal.

His family said that Mashkoor had a cast on his hand which confirms that it was broken due to torture.

Mashkoor was left untreated for more than a week, despite pain and suffering. They finally had to take him to the hospital to operate on his broken hand as it got worse.

He told his family: "we saw death." He also confirmed that the torture is ongoing in Jau Prison.