Ahmed Mushaima, son of Hasan Mushima from the Bahrain 13.

Hasan Mushaima, the Secretary General of Haq, says he continues to hear the sound of torture from Building 10 of Jaw Prison.

According to Ali Mushaima, one of Hasan Mushaima’s sons, his father and his compatriots from the Bahrain 13 objected to the torture. The security forces responded only by attempting to silence them.

Ali also received confirmation that his brother, Ahmed, was brutally beaten at least in part as a message to their father.

On 15 March 2015, forces from the Ministry of the Interior entered Building 4 where Ahmed is being held. When the security forces asked his name, Ahmed knowingly omitted the surname Mushaima. They proceeded to beat him until he admitted who his father was. After he had done so, they beat him again, this time cursing his father’s name as the rest of the detainees looked on.

Finally, the security forces shaved Ahmed’s head in an attempt at further humiliation. Before they left, they told him, “Your father is the reason for all these problems”.
