On September 27, 2014, Al-Wefaq society stated that "security forces arrested two women in Northern Sehla on Friday (26 September 2014). The women were attempting to prevent the arrest of a child."

The society explained, "A fifteen-year-old child, Kumail Mohammed Yousif al-Saffar, was arrested from Northern Sehla near some shops. His mother, Nerjis Abdulhusain Ahmed, and his aunt, Zahraa Ahmed Yousif, objected to his arrest and spoke with the security forces which had arrested him. Talking turned into a verbal altercation. The security forces asked the women to go to al-Khamis police station to pick up the child. They were arrested upon arrival." The society pointed out that "security bodies leveled false charges against them."
