Ignite Scholarships
SPRING 2019

Want $2,500 to Put Toward Your Education?
At Moss Adams, we support the great potential of dedicated students with exceptional qualifications and diverse backgrounds*. If you’re interested in pursuing a degree and career in accounting, we invite you to apply for our 2019 Ignite Diversity Scholarship.

Established by the Moss Adams Foundation, the scholarship will apply toward tuition or related costs for up to 15 students for the 2019-2020 academic year. Through scholarships and educational efforts, we’re committed to increasing multi-cultural representation in the accounting profession.

The Moss Adams Foundation
A 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization, the Moss Adams Foundation is funded by Moss Adams LLP. Its programs promote accounting excellence in teaching, research, and curriculum and also support charitable organizations and causes.

Eligibility
We’re seeking bright and ambitious freshmen and sophomores who have approximately three or four years remaining in their coursework.

Students will be selected based on academic achievement, demonstrated leadership skills, effective communication, and extracurricular activities—particularly leadership roles in diversity organizations. Qualifications include:
