

Welcome to the Big Tent

Find us on stand N540 in the UK-GBC Village at the North Hall at ExCel.

Time	Tuesday 5th March OPEN - 10am – 5pm	Wednesday 6th March OPEN - 10am – 6pm	Thursday 7th March OPEN - 10am – 4pm
10.15 – 11.45	Green Construction: Export Opportunities in Asia Hosted by UKTI  Hear from UKTI's global network of green construction sector specialists based in their Embassies and Consulates about opportunities and major projects, and how they can support UK firms in winning business.	Green Construction: Export Opportunities in America and South Africa Hosted by UKTI  Hear from UKTI's global network of green construction sector specialists based in their Embassies and Consulates about opportunities and major projects, and how they can support UK firms in winning business.	Green Construction: Export Opportunities in India & the Middle East Hosted by UKTI  Hear from UKTI's global network of green construction sector specialists based in their Embassies and Consulates about opportunities and major projects, and how they can support UK firms in winning business.
11.55 – 12.35	What makes a housing development succeed? Hosted by UK-GBC  Place-making: finding the right ingredients. What elements will ensure the delivery of places which are both lasting and loved? Speakers: Mike Roberts, Hab Housing and guests	Green SuperHero or Villain? Hosted by UK-GBC  Back by popular demand! Whose work elevates them above mere mortals in sustainable construction? And whose dastardly deeds have held back industry for generations? Speakers: John Alker, UK-GCB Patrick Bellew, Atelier Ten, Ed Gillespie, Futerra Jon Lovell, Deloitte Real Estate, Marco Marijewycz, E.ON	Green Dragons' Den Hosted by UK-GBC  Almost as long running as the BBC show....a selection of brave contestants pitch their innovations to the Dragons. But which ones stand up to scrutiny, and which of them will escape the Den without getting their wings clipped? Speakers: John Alker, UK-GBC Elizabeth Hegarty, Heathrow, Paul Glinn, M&S, Isabel McAllister, MACE Group
12.45 – 1.25	Tackling Carbon in Infrastructure Hosted by the Green Construction Board  The Green Construction Board's sister document to the IUK Cost of Construction is the Infrastructure Carbon Review. This will shine a light on carbon in infrastructure, particularly highlighting the key benefit that reducing carbon delivers reduced cost. Speakers: David Riley, Anglian Water Mark Enzer, Mott Macdonald	2050: How do we get there? Hosted by the Green Construction Board  Meeting our emissions reduction targets by 2050 will be a significant challenge. The Green Construction Board Chairs will discuss what steps we can take now to make sure we get there. Speakers: Green Construction Board Chairs, including: Paul King, UK-GBC, Rob Lambe, Willmott Dixon, Mark Enzer, Mott Macdonald, Colin Courtney, Construction Strategist	Closing the Performance Gap Hosted by the Green Construction Board  Everyone is keen to ensure that we build efficient buildings. But all too often there is a gap between what was intended and how a building performs when in use. How big is the gap and how can it be closed? Speakers: Paul King, UK-GBC and guests
1.35 – 2.15	Heathrow's New Terminal 2: A BREEAM First Hosted by Heathrow and the UK-GBC  Heathrow is opening its brand new Terminal 2, the world's first BREEAM certified airport terminal. This session will provide an insight into perspectives from the client, contractor and certifying body on the opportunities and challenges involved. Speakers: Iain Groark, Heathrow Airport Ltd, Evelina Maier, Balfour Beatty Clive Jones, Heathrow Airport Ltd Martin Townsend, BREEAM	Greenwash or Blueprint? Hosted by Marks & Spencer and the UK-GBC  Last year M&S launched Cheshire Oaks as their biggest greenest store. Sustainability was embedded in the design, construction and in the operation. Is Cheshire Oaks a blueprint for Sustainability in the Built Environment? Speakers: Rachel Mellows, M&S Ed Dixon, M&S Ros Holt, M&S	Re-Imagining Design Hosted by UK-GBC  This session addresses how the approach and process of design is changing and how as an industry we need to innovate and collaborate to ensure long-term sustainable outcomes in the built environment. Speakers: Cat Hirst UK-GBC Paul Hinkin Black Architecture Richard Bartlett, Willmott Dixon, Becci Taylor, Arup
2.25 – 3.05	Youth in our Sector Hosted by the Green Construction Board  Young people rarely have construction at the top of their career wish-list. The GCB has assembled some of the industry's brightest new entrants to discuss how we can address this by creating an industry that is more diverse, pleasant and stimulating. Speakers: Claire Gott, NCE Graduate of the Year and guests	Low Carbon Routemap Hosted by the Green Construction Board  The GCB is launching the 'Low Carbon Routemap for the Built Environment' at Ecobuild 2013. Join us to hear what steps are necessary to meet the 2050 target of an 80% reduction in greenhouse gas emissions. Speakers: Richard Buckingham, WRAP and the Arup Development Team	Low Carbon Routemap Hosted by the Green Construction Board  The GCB is launching the 'Low Carbon Routemap for the Built Environment' at Ecobuild 2013. Join us to hear what steps are necessary to meet the 2050 target of an 80% reduction in greenhouse gas emissions. Speakers: Dave Marsh, WRAP and the Arup Development Team
3.15 – 3.55	Room 101 Hosted by UK-GBC  A firm EcoBuild favourite. What raises your hackles in the world of green building? Hear some industry heavyweights lambast their pet peeves as they try to consign them to Room 101. Vote for your (least) favourite! Speakers: John Alker UK-GBC Andrew Warren Association for the Conservation of Energy Siobonne Brewster, Carillion, Ben Cartmell, Southfacing	Women in Sustainability Hosted by UK-GBC  In a sector dominated by men, what can the industry do to attract and hold on to talented and skilled women? How do we shatter the glass ceiling? Speakers: Hattie Hartman, The Architects' Journal Sally Hancock, Gentoo Green Claudine Blamey, The Crown Estate Jennifer Clark, Skanska	Green Construction: Export Opportunities in Europe and Russia Hosted by UKTI  Hear from UKTI's global network of green construction sector specialists based in their Embassies and Consulates about opportunities and major projects, and how they can support UK firms in winning business.
4.05 – 4.45	Green Construction: Export Opportunities in Asia Hosted by UKTI  Hear from UKTI's global network of green construction sector specialists based in their Embassies and Consulates about opportunities and major projects, and how they can support UK firms in winning business.	Practical Steps to Greening our Industry Hosted by the Green Construction Board  It does not matter if you are a client, designer, manufacturer, contractor or an operator – The GCB is convinced that each and every one of us has a part to play in making construction more efficient and sustainable. Find out more about what you can do to green your business. Speakers: Jane Thornback, Construction Products Association and guests	