Dance educators working as Teaching Artists in CA schools, either independently or through community organizations, will still have such opportunities even once the dance credential is launched. Those artists interested in becoming credentialed dance educators can follow the paths described under the “PROSPECTIVE EDUCATORS” button. For additional resources for teaching artists check out the Teaching Artists Support Collaborative of California: http://tascofcalifornia.wildapricot.org/